4. Action Items: Discuss and vote on Classico Bike Tour application

This year's Classico Bike Tour is the first of an annual event. Taylor thought it was late in the game to be asking for funding, but Carol says they've laid great groundwork and have already secured $50,000 from Cambria and San Simeon. Taylor agreed that we need an event during shoulder season, and an ongoing event would benefit Cayucos. Being on the route will make people fall in love with Cayucos and we will be marketed for overflow lodging. The drive audience will return and since international travel is down, targeting California travelers makes sense. The cycling community is affluent and because it's a tour, not a race, it requires less training and slower riding so people can really look around.

Carol motioned, and Taylor seconded, to accept the application in the amount of $6000 from Event Funds. Motion approved unanimously.

5. Closing Comments:

- a. The advisory council having a meeting on February 28 at the school to discuss issues with vacation rentals. The licensing fee increased from $35-$350 and there needs to be a code enforcement person who will review all the original licenses and inspect properties to match the license with the property. Vacation Rentals need verification and enforcement. They're finding that owners who have lower priced rentals are going for full-time long-term rental rentals. People don't want to rent old beach checks anymore. They want things that work and places that are updated.
- b. Danielle also commented that the upcoming SFGate story can focus on outdoor adventure, including this new bike tour. Danielle will work with SF gate to get it published as soon as possible
